

6516205838.txt

Limiting satellite radio to non-local content will limit its ability to provide good content for its users. Big money and lobbyists should not be the way this government is run. There no good reason for stopping satellite radio form doing local content. Do not limit satellite radio because of finical concerns for big money radio broadcasters. Money should not run the government.